

McCollum Pioneer Park in Everett

September 8, 2019.

An incredible hike in the pouring rain with two fun women: My honey and Cathy Cooper. We all felt it was like being a kid playing in the rain!! Must go back - rain or shine

All-terrain chair trail, especially when it has just rained – very muddy.
No bathroom access but visitor center was closed when we arrived. Rumor has it there is another boardwalk trail on site.
